BOOKMARKS

As empty books our lives were staged.
The book was opened; we were born.
Each day seemed like a brand new page--
Our innocence was left untorn . . .

While we were small, our families sought
To give us aid along the way,
And as young children we'd be taught
The challenges of every day.

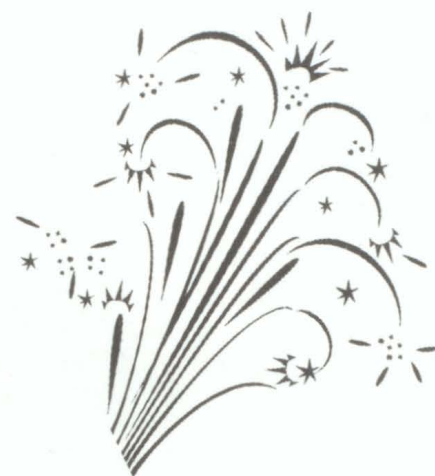

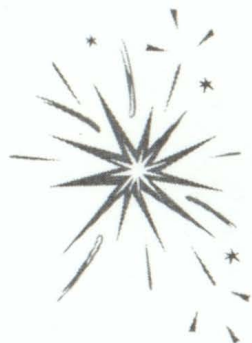

In Junior High we wrote each line;
We started to control the plot,
To reach beyond what limits defined,
Not giving risks a second thought.

The chapter titled "Freshman Year"
Provided many memories
Of sports and dances with our peers . . .
We found our teachers hard to please.

Our Senior year arrived so fast--
Each day became our history.
The Pep Assembly won at last
Stood as our greatest victory.

Part One is finally complete . . .
The rest tells what is yet to come.
We'll never modify or delete
The many things already done.

Today we begin to write Part Two;
Graduation brings us to the gate.
The future thrusts our goal in view . . .
Believe in us, the Class of '98!

POEMS

FOOTPRINTS

We'll write you this poem, maybe all wrong,
But perhaps the message will be heard when we're gone.
Our first years of footprints were made in soft sands,
And our pathways were led by our loving parents' hands.

At first these prints were timid and small,
Playing thoughtlessly and not caring at all:
We were led to the doors of our elementary school;
We played at recess and sang the golden rule.

This was the start of making prints on our own...
We were taught essentials not learned at home.
We walked through Jr. High with joys and tears
And harbored adolescent fears.

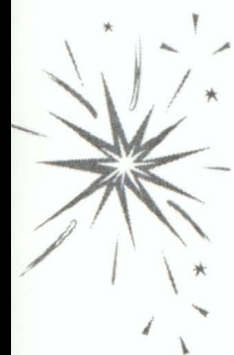

When Eighth Grade ended our footprints faded.
At High School new prints were created.
Our footprints grew bigger as High School came--
Everything was different; yet all was the same.

We near the end of our high school careers:
It's what we've worked toward for all these years!
Although some of us may miss some steps and fall,
We rise again, dust off, and continue through it all.

This adventure continues from class to class,
Learning the present and reviewing the past.
To some this milestone may be the last
Of times we'll spend together as a class.

Our future lies outside these high school doors;
With Our times together we'll see no more...
To others, just a simple new start
As separate paths lead us apart.

With each new step we take
We will recall the Class of '98!

Senior Wishes

Kris,
You have to know that we are proud of you now—and always have been. From the day you came into our lives you have been a joy. You will have a happy and successful life because you know what's important.

We Love You,
The Buh-hoe Family
Mom, Dad and Beth

To Our J.J.

Please know that we love you so much and very proud of you. Keep doing what you do best... Always Trying and smiling and never letting things get you down.

Love,
Mom, Dad,
Bubba & Chelsea

Ben,
What can we say to a son who's the best there is—a son who has given us so many happy memories as he has grown and so much pride in all he has become?

Love, Dad, Mom, and Joaquin

James-

From the moment I saw you... I saw love. From the moment you touched me... I felt love, and you will always be the one I love. You are the sweetest part of my life, and I couldn't have asked God for a more perfect person. You have achieved so many wonderful things and there is only more to come. You are a smart, funny, beautiful person sweetie, with a very bright future ahead of you, and you deserve all of the success I know you will accomplish. Good luck in all you do. God bless you and keep you, and never forget or doubt how much I love you. Congratulations on graduation! And Happy Birthday!

*All my love from here to eternity,
Kim*

We may not yearn for "green chili" duck, or ducks that are grilled, roasted, and baked.

We may not long for "Southern fried" rabbit, squirrel, and quail.

We might not even miss BBQ Sedona trout or deep fried cat fish fillets for quite a while.

But Oh Paul, will we miss you!! Go out now and catch you dream. We are always here for you and will cheer you on. And remember that the road always leads home.

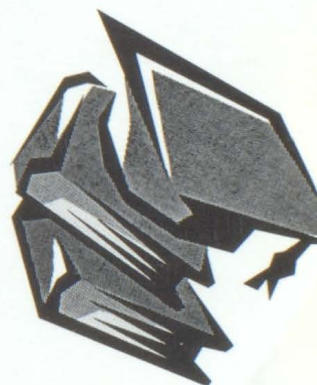

"I can do all things through Him who gives me strength" (Philippians 4:13)
